introduzione

Innovazione tecnologica, qualità dei materiali, efficienza energetica, sostenibilità e rispetto per l'uomo e per la natura. Sono questi i principi che stanno alla base della cultura imprenditoriale di Uniform e che hanno contribuito, fin dalla sua fondazione nel 1988, a realizzare una vasta gamma prodotti con soluzioni personalizzate ed un servizio orientato alla piena soddisfazione del cliente.

Leader nella produzione di sistemi per serramenti in legno-alluminio, Uniform ha sviluppato prodotti sinergici ponendosi l'obiettivo di diventare il punto di riferimento sia per i produttori di serramenti che per gli operatori del mondo dell'edilizia e dell'architettura. Grazie ad un team interno altamente specializzato, Uniform è in grado di offrire consulenza e supporto ai clienti serramentisti in tutte le fasi della progettazione e realizzazione dei suoi prodotti.

introduction

Technological innovation, quality of materials, energy efficiency, sustainability, respect for people and nature: these are the basic principles of Uniform business culture and they have contributed, since the foundation in 1988, to create a wide range of products with customized solutions and a service aimed at full customer satisfaction.

Leader in the production of wood-aluminum window and door systems, Uniform has developed synergic products becoming the reference point for both window and door frame manufacturers and operators in the building and architecture sectors. Thanks to a highly specialized internal team, Uniform is able to offer consultancy and support to producers in all phases of design and production.
